PERCEPTIONS OF SECURITY AND TRUST IN POLICE IN IRAQ Baradiyah, Basra

ABOUT THE PROJECT

IOM Iraq has partnered with Yale Law School's Center for Global Legal Challenges to study the effects of IOM's Community Policing Program, aimed at improving safety and security by building trust and cooperation between Iraqi civilians and law enforcement institutions. This study includes two waves of a door-to-door household survey conducted before and after the implementation of the Community Policing Program in three communities: Baradiyah (Basra governorate), Hamdaniyah (Ninewa), and Jubail (Anbar). The baseline survey of 911 respondents was conducted in July 2019 and the endline survey of 903 respondents was conducted in December 2019.

METHODOLOGY

This infographic is based on data collected in Baradiyah from the baseline survey of 303 respondents in July 2019 before the implementation of IOM's Community Policing Program and 300 respondents in the endline survey in December 2019, after the implementation of the program.
